Looking for IN-PERSON Bridge Lessons

Outside of New Jersey

This is the same suggestion I make in the Playing Bridge link.

1. Community Centers Near You

Many towns have community centers.

Contact those centers in your area and ask if there are regular Bridge Lessons and/or Bridge Games.

Ask the questions from the top of this page. Find out if the offerings meet your experience level.

2. Senior Centers Near You

Many towns have Senior centers.

Contact those centers in your area and ask if there are regular Bridge Lessons and/or Bridge Games.

Ask the questions from the top of this page. Find out if the offerings meet your experience level.

3. Community Centers If You Live In A Planned Community

Many towns have Community Centers.

Contact those centers in your area and ask if there are regular Bridge Lessons and/or Bridge Games.

Ask the questions from the top of this page. Find out if the offerings meet your experience level.

4. Adult Education Programs

Many local School Districts offer non-credit public enrichment programs.

Contact high schools in your area and find out if the school district has an Adult Education program.

Then you can find out if there are Bridge programs near you through Adult Education offerings.

Looking for ONLINE Bridge Lessons

Our suggestion is that you begin with the ACBL – American Contract Bridge League.

This is the national organization for Bridge.

Go To: <https://acbl.org/learn/#lessons>

Once you click on this link, you will find many options for online Bridge Lessons

There are small group lessons.

There are private lessons through Bridge Base Online

There are Zoom and Shark lessons like our format

You will need to read through the descriptions and then choose what you are looking for.

There is also a section for video lessons.
